

Pg 160 – March 18, 2018

Mama and I had a VERY busy Saturday! We went to the market with Tina and the kids and had a lot of fun! We did some shopping that needed getting done. We arrived in Kingsburg just before 6 and had a roast chicken dinner – yumyum. I had a candlelight bath – using 3 walnut half candles Mary gave me – nana had a Lot of trouble lighting all three of them! And then her camera had a Lot of trouble taking a photo of them! Me & nana and papa watched a movie then everyone was tired by 10.

On Sunday, we woke up around 7. Papa and I made our famous blueberry pancakes for breakfast – he even made me some baby pancakes to tide me over! Mama wants the recipe because they are The Best Pancakes Ever! Mama cleaned the car – she'd been fussing about it since way before Christmas! It was soooooo cold out, but she was determined. We coloured and read stories. Nana and I started decorating the flower garden! It was my idea to go out . . . I hummed the whole time we were in the garden! Then mama did my hair before an early supper – so we could leave by 4:45 and go to swimming class. Tomorrow I'm going to my first TaeKwonDo class! Wow!

Nana & I make a feast for lunch!

Cushion Caper With Papa & I!