

Up-do for Friday Night's dance performance!

Long May Weekend

Busy busy day! Saturday morning we went to the big farmers market in Halifax, then to the local outdoor library - it's an amazing playground that just opened, attached to the library, next was a Saturday School trip to the Fairview Pool - it had waves on 3 times - mama said they were big - nana said they sure looked it - she was worried about me. I had a safety belt on that made sure I kept afloat (mama and nana were there - she in the pool - after she came back from getting her bathing suit, nana on the sidelines), and another playground (not Nearly so good) with Aminata and Aio. We got back to the apartment at 5:30 - we were all pooped!

Sunday was rather rainy on-again-off-again, but with fingers crossed we went to Shubenacadie Park (less than 10 min. drive from the apartment) and had a lovely Nature Walk through the woods, over wee bridges, along a canal and lake. I LOVED it!

After supper we went back to the pool - me for my lesson with the "worst teacher ever." Mama told nana how bad the teacher was, but nana said although she believed mama, she had no idea the "teacher" was sooooooo bad! I was teaching myself to swim underwater during our playtime - mama and nana got Very excited!

Monday morning I announced I wanted to do another Nature Walk! Nana went home to Kingsburg and we spent 3.5 hours at the Frog Pond with Aminata and Aio - what fun! We loved climbing the rocks!
