

June 22 weekend: Graduation and yummy / fun potluck picnic with mama, nana, papa & Naomi! Playing with my friends. On Saturday mama, nana and I went to the Big Market – it was soooo crowded! Then to Public Gardens for a yummy mint with chocolate chip ice cream cone, visiting the goose, and seeing all the beautiful flowers! Next to the Museum of Natural History (Wow!) and finally to Goodies . . . Home to supper and a movie. On Sunday we did a lot of tidying in the morning, mama made us a picnic and we went to the Frog Pond and walked all around it – we couldn't dawdle as nana's feet would start to hurt. Then she went to Kingsburg and we went back to the apartment.

Long July 1 weekend in Kingsburg! Arrived Friday 7pm for papa's delicious BBQ chicken dinner! Climbed the scaffolding :-). Saturday: LaHave Ferry, Rissers Beach Boardwalk, LaHave Bakery for lunch, Wileville for mama to get a monitor, back to kingsburg, then papa and us go to Becca's Pub for supper on the deck – tasty food, but s-l-o-w service! Sunday: I drive the car down the driveway! Papa picks up our annual fish and chips (for lunch) and strawberry shortcake (for later) from Riverport Fire Department. Yum! Nana and I garden, then we girls go to SandDollar Beach – after the rain! Monday we head home early afternoon after lunch. Busy, fun weekend, much of it outdoors – I can come and go in Kingsburg as long as I stay in the yard which of Course I do!

Ps: I saved a toad and a squirrel from Harley!!!

On papa's staging. A gift for nana. On the LaHave Ferry with mama
