We celebrated mama's birthday (a few days early) and Thanksgiving at Kingsburg! We arrived Friday with our camper (to store for the winter) for nana's home made pizzas. On Saturday morning, nana and I made mama the best ever birthday cake – it was brown – her favourite colour – chocolate cake with chocolate icing decorated with chocolate coated strawberries (all my idea!) - SOOOOO GOOD! Mama, nana and I went to Mahone Bay for the Scarecrow Festival – on the way, we bought a harness and lead for Sullivan to start training him so we can take him camping next summer! Then we picked up papa who's working hard on siding the house and we went for dinner at the Rose Bay Pub. On Sunday, nana and I went in the garden – we explored and I picked a beautiful bouquet for mama. Our fabulous supper was delayed a little so nana got out a packing box brought over by her friend Trudi. We turned it into a playhouse! I liked it so well we took it home to Dartmouth on Monday! Before heading out we spent some time at Hirtles Beach. :-)
