

Mommy and I got to Kingsburg Friday noon! Nana had to go to Bridgewater but was back by 3.

We brought Sullivan and he's great! He growled and hissed at Harley (who's twice his size) but things started calming down after a few days – Harley spent lots of time outdoors. He has a cozy cozy house under the house.

I opened a few gifts at a time each day until Christmas on Tuesday. I got an LOL pet, LOL blanket and pillow, lots of crafts (clay, jewelry, popup book making), a Crayola suitcase with crayons, pencil crayons, markers, a Crazy Fort building set, BIG earmuffs a BIG unicorn stuffie . . .

We stayed up late and slept in until nine or TEN lots of nights! We were on holiday! Yayyyyyy! We went out for three walks – 2 to the village and 1 to Hirtles. The puddles were frozen and fun to play on. On Thursday, mama and I went to Bridgewater for a little shopping and we walked around the duckpond.
