Beginning of a pop-up story by Augusta Rose (started over Christmas). It tells the story of our kitty Sullivan coming to Kingsburg for the first time – we were there for 12 days!

“Once upon a time two kittens named Harley and Sullivan. These kitties didn't fully trust each other. They kept watching each other all day. Sully went away and Harley kept laying on the couch. The cats didn't fully like each other – they hissed. They didn't want to be close to each other. Once a big cat [Harley] was scared of a small cat [Sullivan] and once a small cat was scared of a big cat . . .”
