

Ayo and I were in the same March Break Camp at the Needham community centre. We went to a movie – the Grinch (!) - we took 2 city buses to get there! And we went swimming in the pool four times. I was late on Thursday because I had to go for my dental check-up, teeth-cleaning. Guess what! No cavities, all is well. Yay! I went to Hailey's birthday party Saturday – we made clay unicorns at the 4 Cats Art Studio! On Sunday mom and I went to dinner at Alex and Candida's place. Back to school tomorrow!

New Umbrella!
